Describe in your abstract briefly the background, methods, and results of your research including verification.

Provide the most important references related to your work in order to help reviewers put your work in the right context. Number all citations consecutively in square brackets. Use in text only the reference number, eg. [1:pp. 33–45] and [2]. Do not use "Ref." or "reference" except at the beginning of a sentence. Book titles and journal/conference names shall be typed in italic.

Give all authors' names in reference; do not use et al. Papers that have not been published, even if they have been submitted for publication, should be cited as "unpublished". Papers that have been accepted for publication should be cited as "in press".
